FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BURLINGAME, CA, January 13th, 2010 –

Following the overwhelming success of the Parca Auxiliary's Spring Luncheon and Fashion Show in May 2009, the Auxiliary continues to support the efforts of Parca, a private nonprofit organization serving individuals with developmental disabilities in the Bay Area.

Over the past few months, the Auxiliary, which is devoted to raising money and supporting awareness for Parca, has organized some festive and meaningful events for the clients of Parca Organization and has welcomed both a new board and a new provisional class.

This past fall, the Auxiliary threw a festive Halloween party for Parca's clients. The party was held at St. Matthew's Episcopal Day School which was decorated with children's Halloween artwork, pumpkins, cobwebs and more. The clients enjoyed a night of dinner and grooved to the tunes in their creative costumes. In December, the Auxiliary is planning some holiday cheer when it's members will come together as "Secret Santas" and distribute gifts to over 100 Parca clients.

In October, Paige Cattano passed the reigns to Paige Meek, the new President of the Parca Auxiliary and introduced the Board of Directors for 2009/10:
